Prague Hotels

Prague, the capital of the Czech Republic sometimes called – the golden city and one of the most popular cities in Europe. Not so long ago Prague was still under a communist regime making travelling to Prague very difficult. However all that has changed, especially just after the fall of the iron curtain finding accommodation in Prague was very difficult. Nowadays the number of Prague hotels has soared, estimates run into 400 hotels and pensions. Back in the early nineties the quality of the hotels in Prague was questionable but at the moment all international hotel chains Masai Mara family tour packages have their own hotels in Prague. From very basic to the most luxurious hotels such as the Corinithia Towers Hotel or the Alcron hotel located masai mara safari cost close to the Wenceslas square, in fact Prague is one of Europes cities with the highest number of five star hotels. When looking for Prague hotels it is not difficult to find a hotel in the city centre most of the hotels lie in the old city and are located close to each other. This is one of the attractive aspects of Prague, as the city is pretty small compared to some other major European cities , it is easy to explore Prague by foot. Getting to Prague is very easy, Prague has an extensive transport system. For transport within the city the most suitable means of transport is the metro which is cheap, safe and reliable. By air Prague can be reached via Ruzyn airport, at Ruzyn Airport you will find the Ramada Airport Hotel Prague. If you arrive in Prague by train you will also find a great number of hotels in the direct neighborhood . For example the luxurious Esplanade Prague hotel which offers you a delightful stay in a beautiful Art Nouveau building. If it is a hotel close to the Prague Castle you are looking for then the 5 star Savoy Hotel could be your best choice. Being member of the Leading Small Hotels of the World this hotel has been the favorite place to stay for many famous persons visiting Prague. So Prague caters to the preferences of many, it is an history city with attraction and landmarks that are all in short reach however offering the atmosphere of a true metropolis. And finding accommodation in Prague will never be difficult, hotels can be found in all sorts and classifications.

