A Deep Dive into the Bonus Rounds

The piece de resistance of Crazy Time isn't just the numbered sections-- it's the four fancy bonus video games. Experiencing these in the demo mode is essential because each operates on an absolutely different concept:

1. Coin Flip

This is the most regular bonus offer round. A coin with a red side and a blue side is flipped by a device. Each side is assigned a random multiplier before the flip. Whichever side lands deal with up awards the gamer that multiplier.

2. Cash Hunt

Picture a giant shooting gallery screen featuring 108 random multipliers concealed behind various signs (like a cactus, a target, or a sheriff's badge). The gamer utilizes a virtual crosshair to aim and contend a sign, exposing the multiplier concealed behind it.

3. Pachinko

Influenced by the conventional Japanese arcade game, this round includes a huge wall filled with pegs. The host drops a puck from the top, and it bounces down randomly up until it lands in one of the slots at the bottom, each consisting of a multiplier. If the puck arrive on a "Double," all multipliers on the board double, and the puck is dropped once again.

4. Crazy Time

This is the ultimate benefit round, accessed through a red door behind the primary wheel. Gamers are transported into a dynamic, virtual world featuring a huge, vibrant wheel with 64 segments and three flappers (Green, Blue, and Yellow). Gamers choose their flapper. The wheel spins, and whatever multiplier it stops on is granted. If it hits "Double" or "Triple," all multipliers increase, and the wheel spins once again-- scaling as much as a staggering 20,000 x max win.
