Understanding the Wheel Segments

The 52-segment wheel is divided into numbers and bonus offer games. The numbers pay out even money or better, while the benefit signs offer gamers entry into the video game's heading acts.

Here is how the wheel is dispersed:

- Number 1: 21 sections (Pays 1:1)
- Number 2: 13 segments (Pays 2:1)
- Number 5: 7 segments (Pays 5:1)
- Number 10: 4 sectors (Pays 10:1)
- Coin Flip: 4 sectors
- Pachinko: 2 segments
- Cash Hunt: 2 sections
- Crazy Time: 1 section

The Top Slot Feature

Before every spin of the main wheel, a two-reel mini slot machine located directly above the wheel spins at the same time.

- Reel 1 displays a bet spot (either a number or a perk game).
- Reel 2 displays a multiplier (ranging from 2x up to 50x).

If the bet area and the multiplier align horizontally, that multiplier is applied to the corresponding section on the main wheel for that round. If the wheel lands on that segment, all wins for that bet are increased appropriately, setting the phase for enormous payments.

Dive Into the Four Bonus Rounds

The true magic-- and volatility-- of Crazy Time depends on its 4 interactive bonus offer rounds. These video games transportation players out of the studio through CGI and offer the game's most significant win capacity.

1. Coin Flip

The simplest of the perk rounds, Coin Flip features a red-and-blue token turned by a machine.

- The Outcome: Whichever color lands deal with up awards the player the multiplier connected to that side.

2. Pachinko

Influenced by the standard Japanese arcade game, Pachinko features a big physical wall filled with pegs.

- The "Double" Feature: If the puck lands in a "DOUBLE" slot, all multipliers at the bottom of the board double, and the puck is dropped again for a possibility at even larger rewards.

Money Hunt is an interactive shooting gallery game presented on a huge screen with 108 random multipliers hidden behind numerous signs (like a cactus, a target, or a chef's hat).

- How it works: Players utilize an on-screen cannon to intend and shoot at a sign of their choice before the countdown timer ends. Once the timer ends, all players expose the multiplier hidden behind their picked target. (Note: In automated play, the video game selects a target for the gamer).

- The Cover-All Strategy: Betting on all or many of the segments (numbers and bonus offer games) guarantees you rarely miss out on a spin, though the expense of covering the board can surpass the smaller sized payouts.
- Perk Chasing: Focusing specifically on the perk rounds (Coin Flip, Pachinko, Cash Hunt, and Crazy Time). This is a high-risk, high-reward method since bonus rounds happen on only 9 of the 52 sections.
- Analytical Betting: Relying on the game's history tracker. Some gamers like to bet on sectors that have not hit in a long time (the "hot/cold" fallacy), though previous spins statistically have no bearing on future outcomes.
