Epicormic shoots on a trunk signal a stressed crown. Removing them improves appearance but does not solve Click here to find out more the cause. On a declining tree they may be the only remaining foliage, so removal can do real harm. Epicormic notes at %LINK%.