Action 1: Obtain a Medical Certificate

The journey starts at a physician's workplace. Every applicant must go through a basic medical checkup to ensure physical and psychological fitness for driving.

1. Visit a General Practitioner (Háziorvos): The candidate can visit their regional GP or a licensed occupational health physician.
2. The Examination: The doctor will inspect basic vision, hearing, cardiovascular health, and case history. Those who use glasses must bring them to the visit.
3. The Cost and Result: The cost is normally controlled and ranges between 7,000 and 10,000 HUF. Upon passing, the doctor issues a Medical Fitness Certificate (Orvosi alkalmassági igazolás), which need to be presented to the driving school.

Step 2: Complete the KRESZ (Theory) Course and Exam

In Hungary, attending a certified driving school (Autósiskola) is necessary. The first major hurdle is mastering the theoretical knowledge required to browse Hungarian roads safely.

- The Course: The KRESZ (Road Traffic Regulations) course generally includes around 28 hours of class direction. Numerous schools now use these lectures completely in English, and online e-learning modules are also widely readily available.

- The Exam: Once the course is completed, trainees sit for a computer-based multiple-choice test at a federal government testing center (Közlekedési Alkalmassági és Vizsgaközpont - KAV).
    - The examination includes 55 concerns.
    - A passing score requires a minimum of 65 out of a possible 75 points.
    - The test is available in English, Hungarian, and a number of other major languages.

Action 3: Complete First Aid Training

Before taking the useful driving examination, Hungarian law requires all novice license applicants to complete a licensed First Aid course (Elsősegélynyújtó tanfolyam).

- The Course: Typically arranged by the Hungarian Red Cross (Magyar Vöröskereszt), this is a quick, one-day course covering standard life assistance, CPR, and accident management.
- The Exam: A practical and theoretical test administered by the Red Cross. Upon passing, the candidate receives a First Aid Certificate, which is a mandatory document for the last license issuance.

Step 4: Practical Driving Lessons and Exam

With the theory examination and very first aid accreditation out of the method, the next action is getting behind the wheel.

- Selecting an Instructor: Students choose a driving instructor through their driving school. It is vital to find an instructor who speaks proficient English if the trainee is not competent in Hungarian.
- Compulsory Hours: Hungarian law mandates a minimum of 29 driving hours, plus a last practical exam hour (amounting to 30 hours). However, many trainees require additional hours to feel great.
- The Practice: Lessons cover city driving, night driving, parking maneuvers, and driving on highways (autópálya).
- The Practical Exam: Conducted by a KAV inspector, this test lasts approximately 50 minutes. It begins with a car safety check, followed by maneuvers on a closed course (or peaceful street), and concludes with driving in regular traffic conditions.

Step 5: Final Application at the Government Office

Once the theory examination, Magyar Jogosítvány Weboldal emergency treatment accreditation, and practical driving examination are effectively finished, the driving school concerns a completion certificate (Vezetői engedély kiállításához szükséges igazolás).

The candidate must then take this certificate, in addition to supporting documents, to a city government Window (Kormányablak) to officially request the physical license card.
