Interstate 20 West Texas Semi Truck Crash Attorney Interstate 20 runs across West Texas through Abilene, Midland, Odessa and on toward El Paso. It carries long-haul freight and heavy oilfield traffic, often at high speeds over long, flat stretches where driver fatigue is a real risk. Texas Truck Accident Lawyer takes semi truck cases along I-20 and throughout West Texas. Crashes on these highways often involve drivers who've exceeded their hours of service, trucks drifting across the center line on two-lane roads and high-speed rear-end impacts. Remote crash scenes can make evidence harder to gather, so the firm moves quickly to secure truck data, crash reports and witness accounts. Rural crashes also raise practical challenges. The nearest hospital truck accident legal help may be far away, the investigating officer may be from a small department, and witnesses may be passing travelers from other states. The firm works with investigators who know how to track down out-of-state witnesses and gather records from small agencies. It also understands that clients from rural areas may be treated at hospitals in Midland, Odessa, Abilene or Lubbock, and it coordinates with those providers to gather medical records and bills without adding stress for the family.

Texas Truck Accident Lawyer | 2100 W Loop S Ste 818, Houston, TX 77027 | (832) 250-4888

Texas Truck Accident Lawyer has handled more than 10,000 cases, and the firm reports over $750 million recovered for injured Texans across more than 30 years of practice. Past results don't guarantee a similar outcome, but that track record gives the team real insight into how trucking insurers value claims, where they push back and how to answer them with evidence. That experience includes cases against national carriers, regional fleets and small local operators alike. Recovery after a serious truck crash isn't only physical. Many people deal with anxiety behind the wheel, trouble sleeping, financial stress and strain on their relationships. Those effects are real and they count under Texas law. A good claim tells the full story of how the semi truck accident lawyer crash changed your life, not just the list of medical procedures you've been through. Commercial trucks also cover huge distances in Texas, and a single driver might pass through several counties and jurisdictions in a day. Crashes can happen far from home, on unfamiliar roads, with police reports filed by agencies you've never dealt with. A firm that handles cases statewide knows how to gather records from each of those agencies and keep the case moving wherever it started. FAQ About

Semi Truck Accident Lawyer Can you sue if a semi truck hits you? Yes. If the driver or trucking company was careless, you can bring a claim against the driver and usually the motor carrier, and sometimes the trailer owner, shipper or maintenance company. Texas Truck Accident Lawyer reviews who's responsible for your crash and which policies apply, with no upfront fee. Call (832) 250-4888 to talk it through. How do you sue a trucking company after an accident? The process starts with a preservation demand so the carrier keeps its truck data, driver logs and camera footage. The firm then investigates, builds the claim and presents it to the insurers once your treatment picture is clear. If no fair offer comes, a lawsuit is filed and the case moves through discovery, mediation and, if needed, trial. How much are most semi truck accident settlements? There's no reliable average because every case turns on its own injuries, medical costs, lost income, fault evidence and available insurance. A soft tissue injury and a spinal cord injury lead to very different outcomes. Texas Truck Accident Lawyer gives honest, free assessments based on the facts of your crash rather than quoting online averages. Is it worth hiring a lawyer if a commercial vehicle hit me but there wasn't much damage? Often it is. Low vehicle damage doesn't always mean low injury, and neck, back and brain injuries can take days to show up. Trucking insurers also move fast to close small claims cheaply. A free consultation with Texas Truck Accident Lawyer will tell you honestly whether representation makes sense for your situation. How long do I have to file a semi truck accident lawsuit in Texas? Texas generally allows two years from the date of the crash for personal injury lawsuits and two years from the date of death for wrongful death claims. Claims involving government entities can require notice much sooner. The firm identifies every deadline in your case at the first meeting. What if the semi truck driver says the crash was my fault? Texas uses proportionate responsibility, so you can still recover if you were 50 percent or less at fault, with your award reduced by your share. Insurers often try to push blame onto the other driver. Truck data, witness interviews within 48 hours and crash reconstruction help keep fault assigned on the evidence. Who pays when an Amazon or FedEx truck causes a crash? It depends on who employed the driver and who owned the vehicle. Many Amazon deliveries are run by delivery service partners, and some FedEx routes are run by independent contractors, each with its own insurance. Texas Truck Accident Lawyer works through those arrangements to identify every source of coverage. What damages can I recover after a semi truck crash in Texas? You can seek medical expenses, future care, lost wages, lost earning capacity and property damage, along with pain, mental anguish, physical impairment and disfigurement. Where a company acted with gross negligence, exemplary damages may also be available. The firm's nurse practitioner helps make sure every injury is documented. Do I need a lawyer who focuses on truck accidents? Semi truck cases involve federal safety rules, driver qualification files, electronic logging data and several layers of insurance that ordinary car wreck claims don't. A firm that focuses on trucking knows which records to demand and how to use them. Texas Truck Accident Lawyer handles truck and commercial vehicle crashes across Texas from Houston and Dallas. How much does a semi truck accident lawyer cost? Texas Truck Accident Lawyer works on contingency, so there's no upfront payment and no attorney's fee unless the firm recovers money for you. The firm also covers investigation and expert costs while the case moves forward. The fee is explained clearly before you sign.
