Policy and Responsible Gambling

The explosive growth of the Kenyan gaming industry demanded robust regulatory oversight to secure consumers and make sure reasonable play.

The Regulatory Body

The market is controlled by the Betting Control and Licensing Board (BCLB) under the Betting, Lotteries and Gaming Act. The BCLB is accountable for:

- Issuing licenses to legal wagering and casino operators.
- Guaranteeing that games are fair and utilize certified Random Number Generators (RNGs).
- Tracking advertising practices to avoid targeting minors.
- Enforcing tax compliance within the sector.

Gamers are strongly advised to verify that any online casino or betting website they utilize holds a valid BCLB license to guarantee the safety of their funds and individual information.

Tips for Responsible Gambling

While casino games are designed to be entertaining, they carry fundamental monetary threats. To make sure gaming remains an enjoyable pastime instead of an issue, gamers should follow these standards:

- Set a Budget: Decide how much money you can afford to lose before you begin playing, and never go beyond that limit.
- Never Ever Chase Losses: Accepting a loss is part of the video game. Trying to recover lost cash generally leads to bigger monetary problem.

- Treat It as Entertainment: View cash invested in casino games as the cost of entertainment, similar to buying a ticket to a movie or a football match.
- Know When to Stop: Take routine breaks and avoid playing when feeling psychological, stressed, or under the impact of alcohol.
- Use Self-Exclusion Tools: Most reputable Kenyan online platforms offer tools that allow players to briefly or permanently lock their accounts if they feel their betting is leaving hand.
