Deep Dive: The Four Crazy Time Bonus Rounds

Setting off a bonus offer round carries gamers from the primary studio into a secondary digital or physical mini-game. This is where the game truly makes its name.

Coin Flip

This is the most basic and most frequent bonus offer round. The host steps up to a machine that flips a coin with a Red side and a Blue side.

- Before the flip, random multipliers are designated to each side of the coin.
- Whichever color lands face up identifies the winning multiplier for all players who bet on Coin Flip.

Money Hunt

Money Hunt takes players to a massive digital screen including a shooting gallery filled with 108 random multipliers.

- Each multiplier is concealed behind a different sign (such as a cactus, target, or chef's hat).
- Gamers are provided a limited time to aim and fire a cannon at a symbol of their choice.
- When time expires, the concealed multipliers are exposed, and each player receives the multiplier behind their chosen target.

Pachinko

Influenced by the standard Japanese arcade game, Pachinko includes a large physical board filled with pegs.

- The host drops a radiant puck from the top of the board.
- The puck bounces arbitrarily down through the pegs up until it lands in one of numerous multiplier slots at the bottom.
- If the puck lands on a "Double" worth, all multipliers at the bottom of the board double, and the host drops the puck once again for even larger wins.

Crazy Time

The holy grail of the game, the Crazy Time bonus round, leads players behind a red door into a lively, surreal virtual world featuring an enormous 64-segment wheel.

- Players should pick among three flappers: Green, Blue, or Yellow.
- The host presses a giant red button to spin the wheel.
- Whichever section the selected flapper indicate is the multiplier the gamer wins.

- Much like Pachinko, this wheel consists of "Double" and "Triple" segments, which can send multipliers skyrocketing approximately the game's optimum limitation of 20,000 x or 25,000 x.

Breakdown of Odds and Payouts

Understanding the mathematical possibilities behind Crazy Time is crucial for handling a bankroll effectively. Due to the fact that the wheel has a fixed variety of segments, particular results are statistically much more likely than others.
